Persecution does not make the just man suffer, nor does oppression destroy him if he is on the right side of truth. Socrates smiled as he took poison, and Stephen smiled as he was stoned. What truly hurts is our conscience that aches when we oppose it.

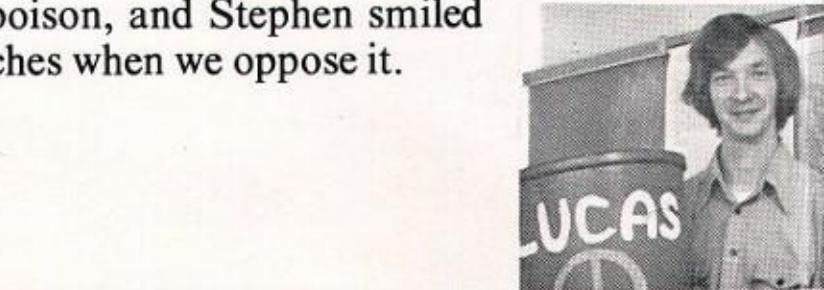

Kahlil Gibran

Tenderness and kindness are not signs of weakness and despair, but manifestations of strength and resolution.

My enemy said to me, "Love your enemy." And I obeyed him and loved myself.

Kahlil Gibran

Man has no enemy but self, no darkness but ignorance, no suffering but that which springs from the insubordinate elements of his own nature.

Kahlil Gibran

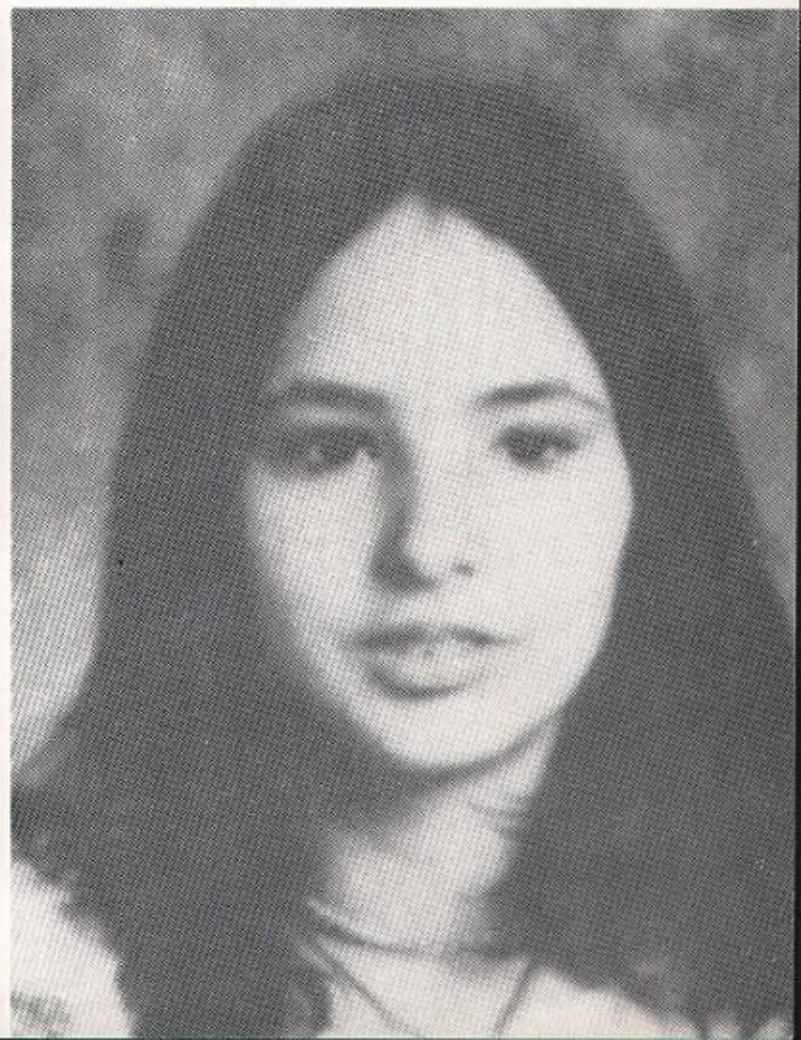

IRENE BISHOP — all that i love is near at hand always in earth and air —

BOB GABRIELSEN — Memories of the way we were.

KATHY DORN — Love looks not with the eyes but with the mind.

Marcia Champagne — "What is this life, if full of care we have no time to stop and stare, no time to wait till the mouth can enrich the smile the eyes began."

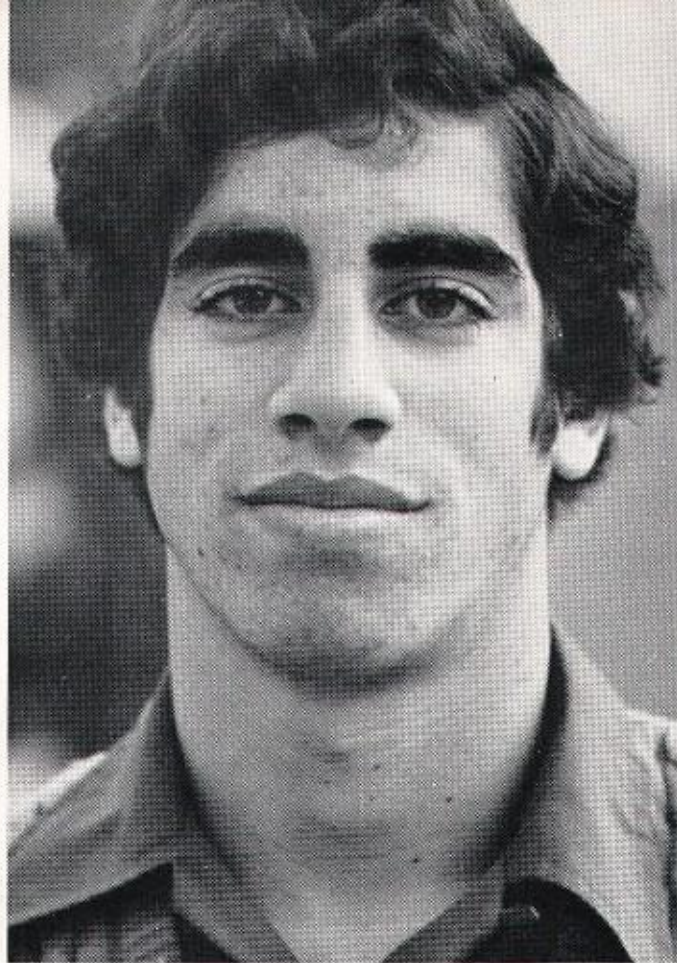

Don Eddy — "I am now free to go my own way. Good-bye school."

Steve Miller — "I'm gonna love ya till the stars fall from the sky."

April Scheidel — "Don't let the sun go down on me."

Vince Carlotti — "On the wind, soaring free, spread your wings. I'm beginning to see, out of my mind far from view, beyond the reach of the nightmare come true."

Linda Sousa — "Optima dies . . . prima fugit."

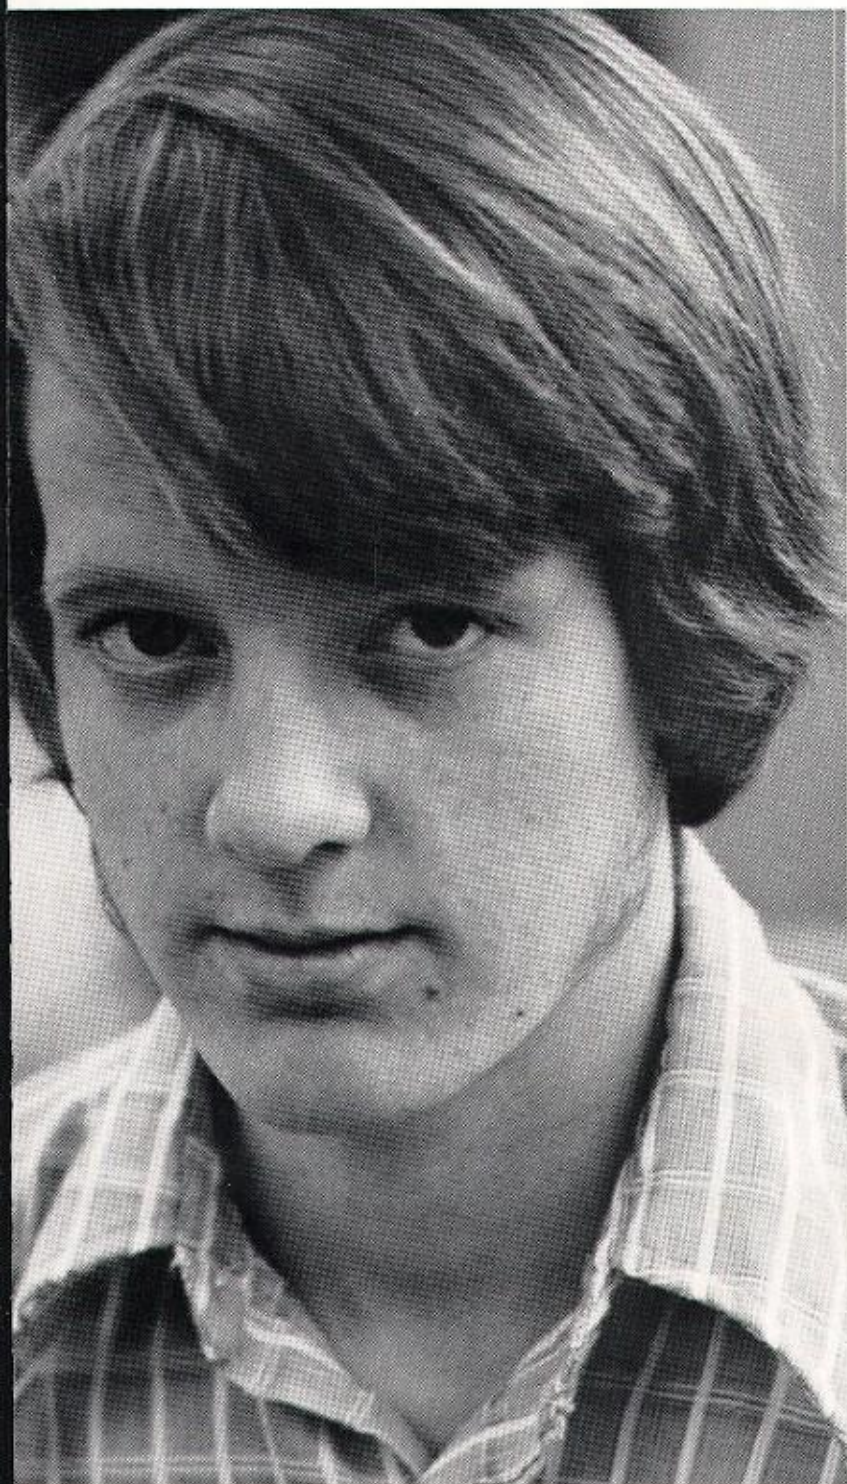

Mike Rotolo — "The most useless day is one in which we have not smiled."

Pat Donahue — "One of the most beautiful qualities of friendship, is to understand and to be understood."

Lucy Charland — "Hold fast to dreams, for when dreams die, life is a broken winged bird that cannot fly."

Sandy Garafalo — "My love and memories of you will never end."

Don McKnight — "DANGER: RACCOON CROSSING."

Don Ketzer — As time goes on I realize just what you mean to me.

Janis Swartz — I will be found in the house of simplicity; built on the brink of the stream of affection.

Cindy Lebrecht — If a picture paints a thousand words, then why can't I paint you.

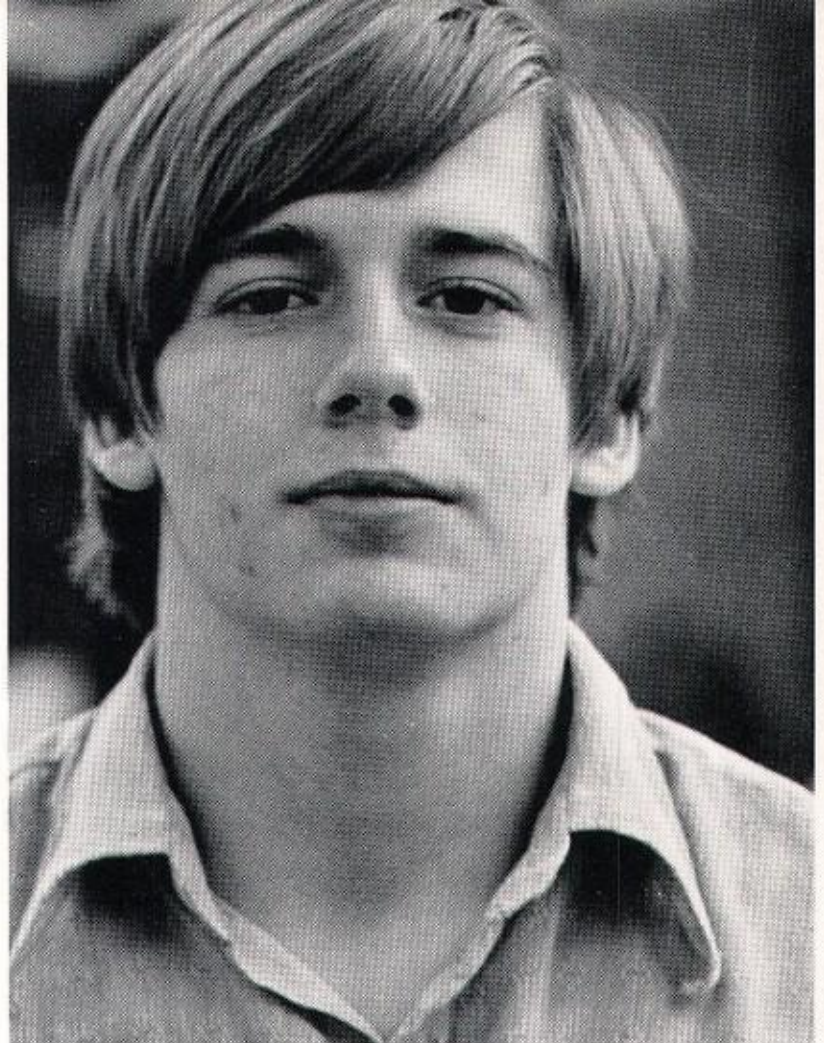

Carol Ainsburg — A true friend is sharply attune to the emotions and feelings of another and silently embedded in that person's growth.

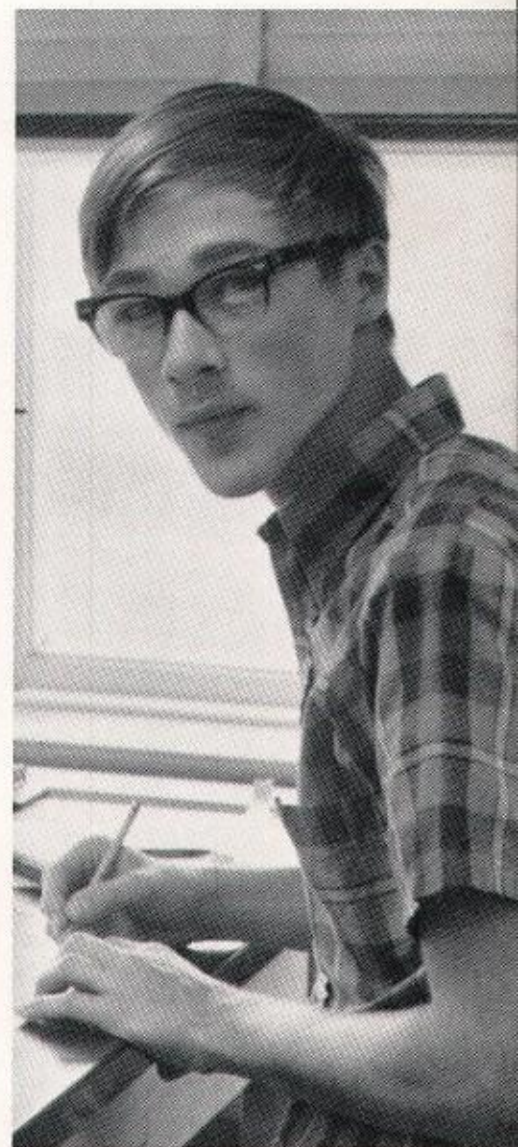

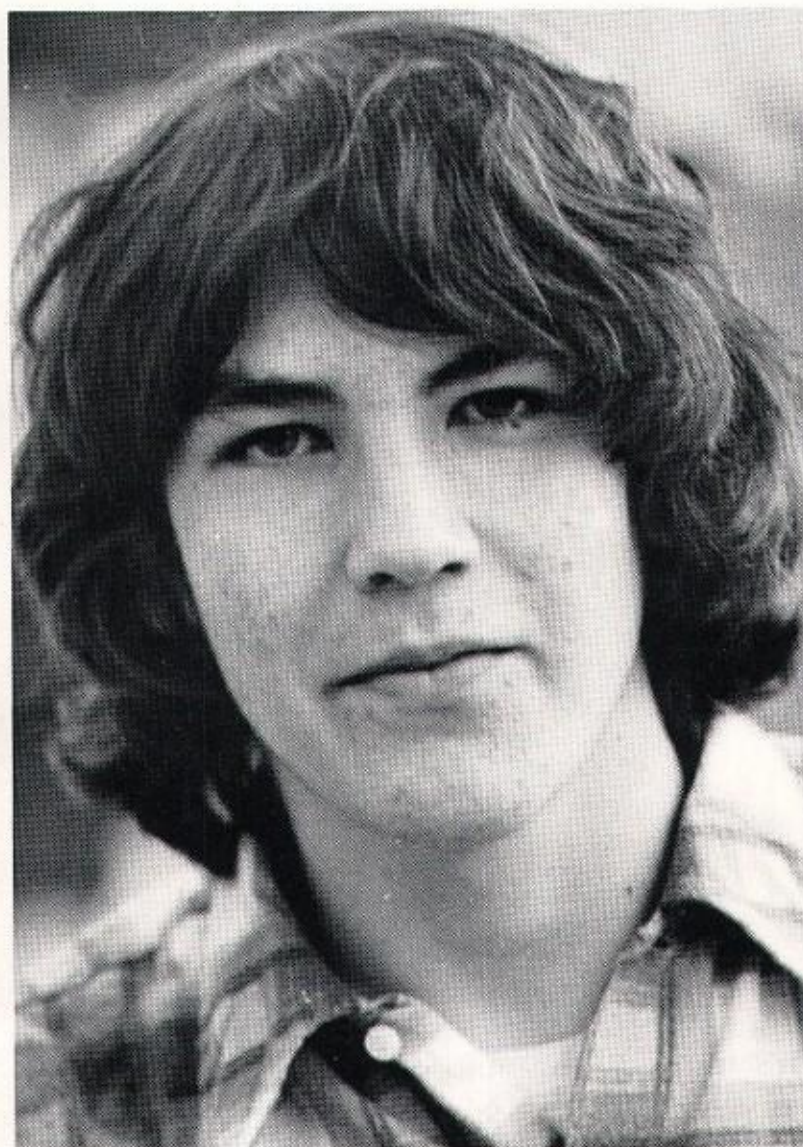

Denise Tremblay — To give someone a memory keeps you close when you're apart.

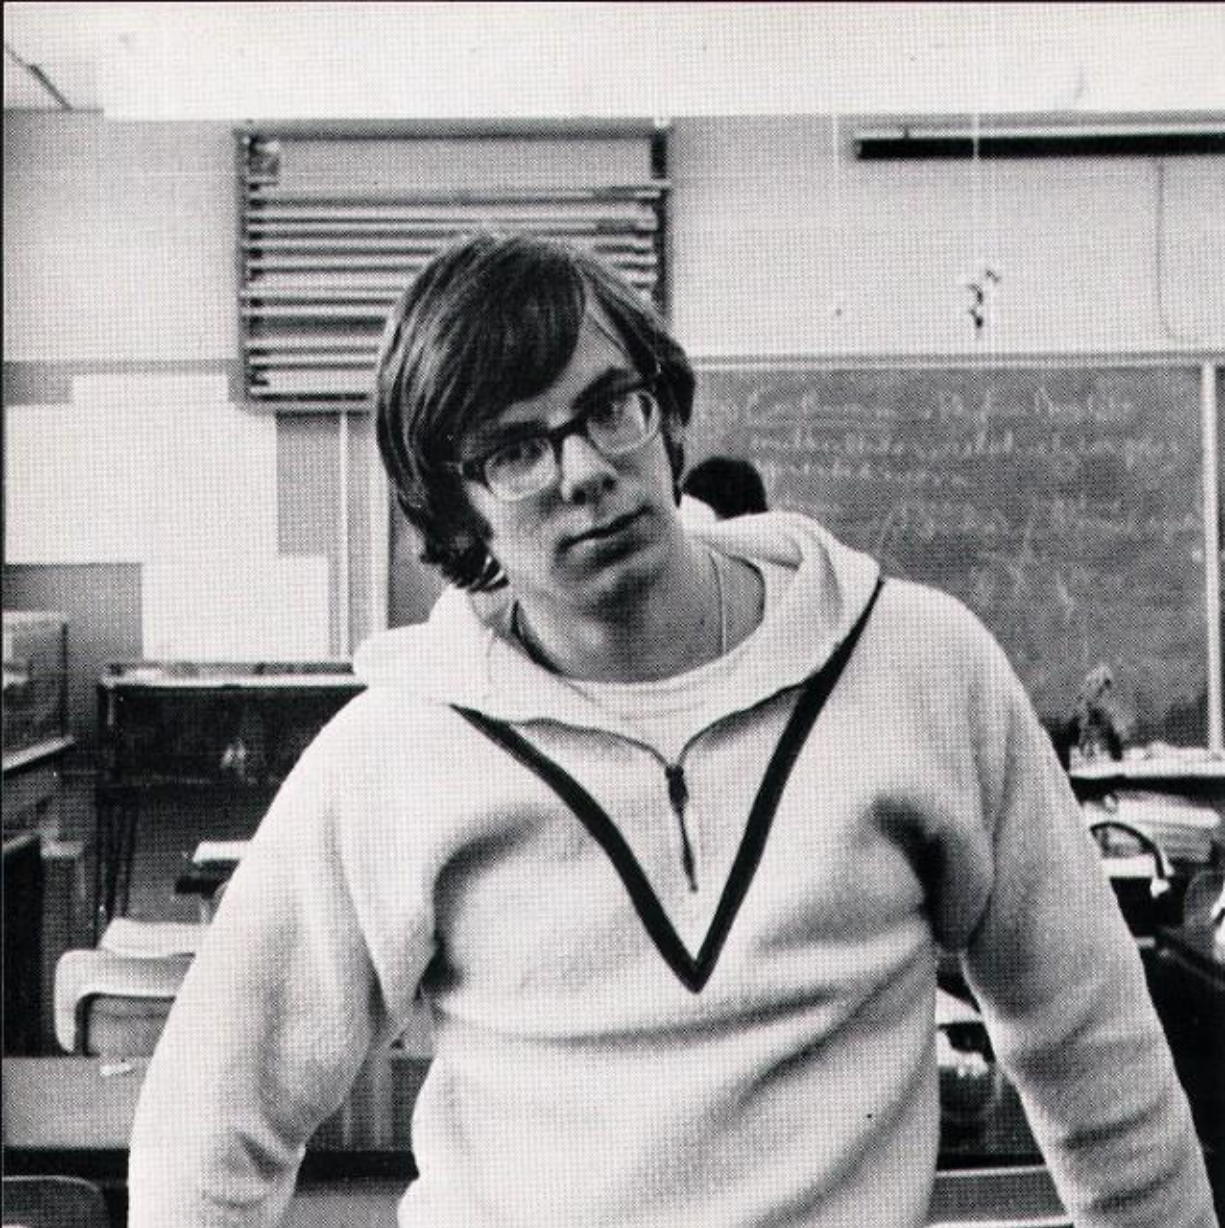

Lori Chapman — "No law can be sacred to me but that of my nature."

Gail Hammond — "What love has joined together, only love can put asunder, and we are what love has joined together."

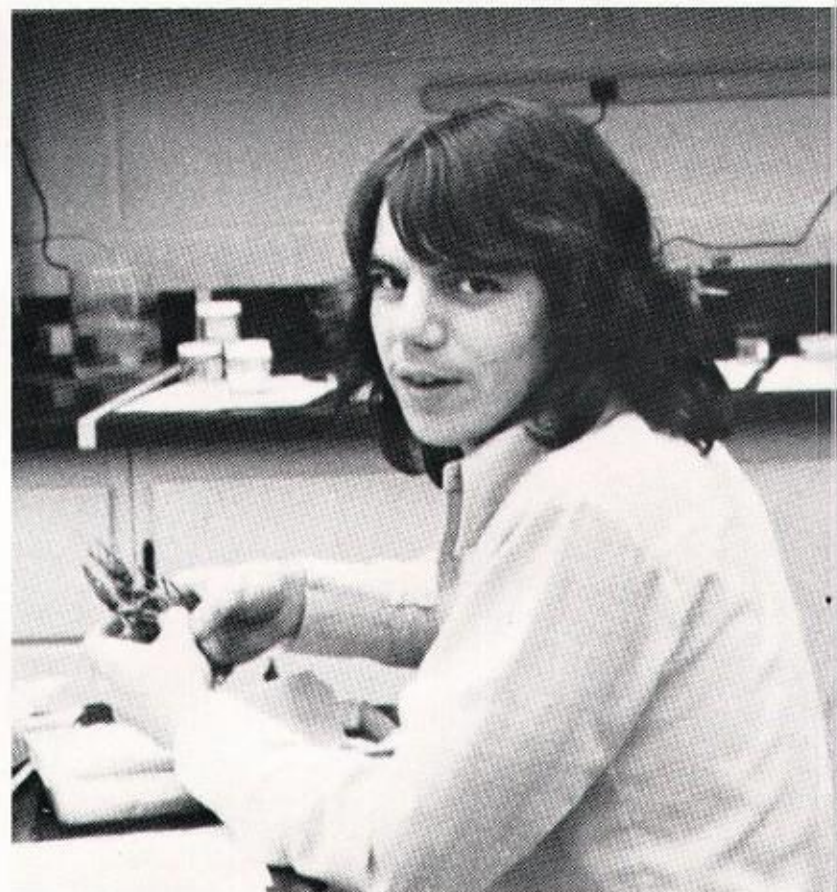

Mike Jacobie — "The science room, my home away from home."

Chuck Duquette — "And if you listen very hard the tune will come to you at last. When all are one and one is all to be a rock and not to roll."

Pat Scannell — "No one expects the Spanish Inquisition."

Steve Miller — "Sign me up as a diplomat — my only office is the park."

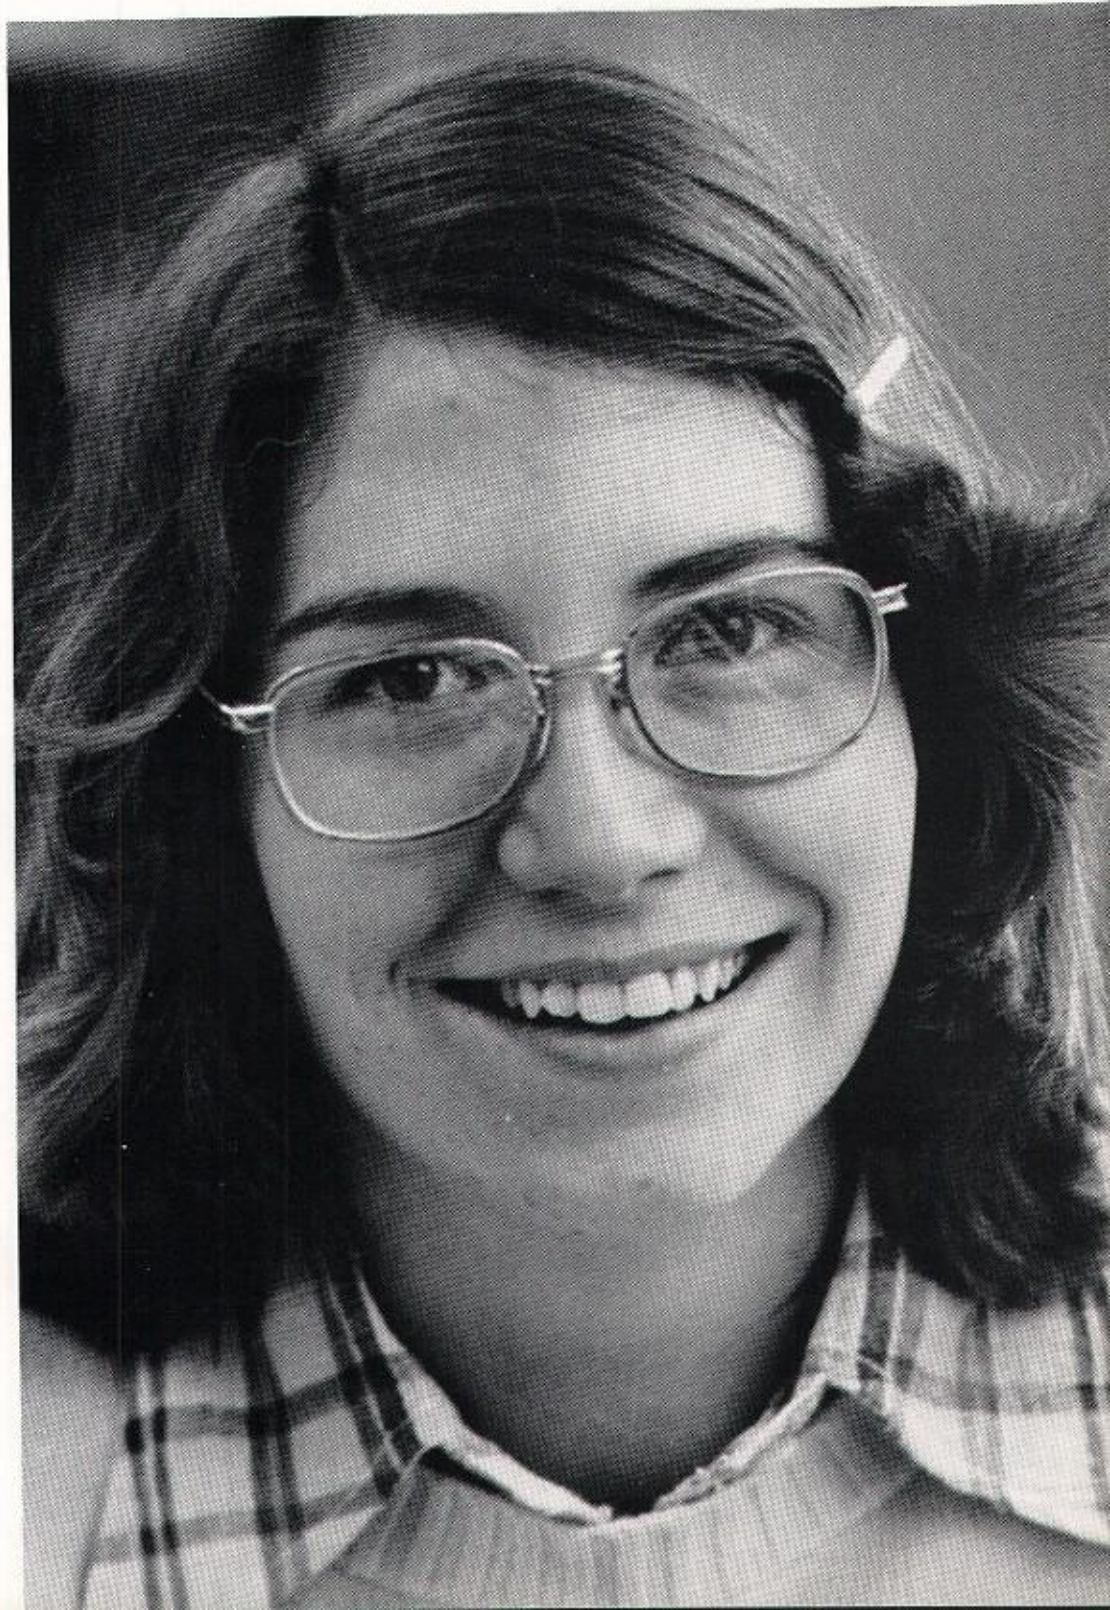

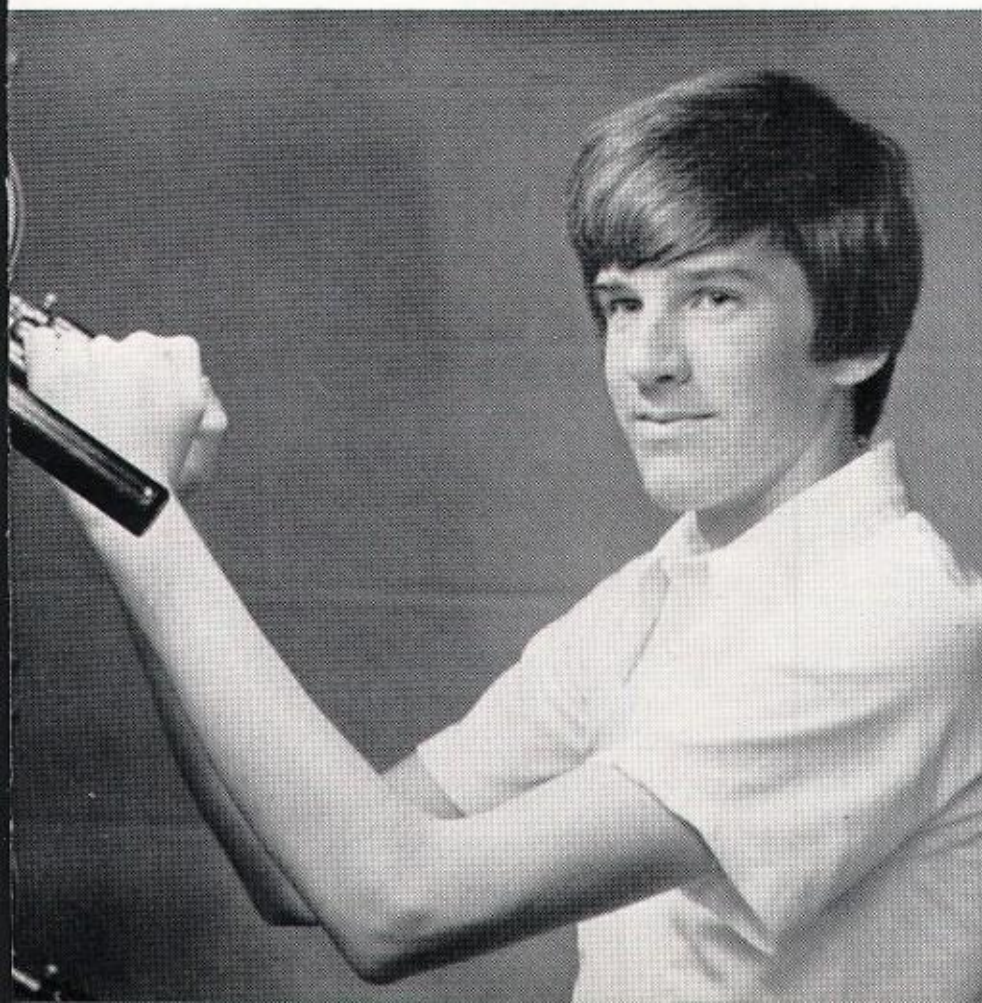

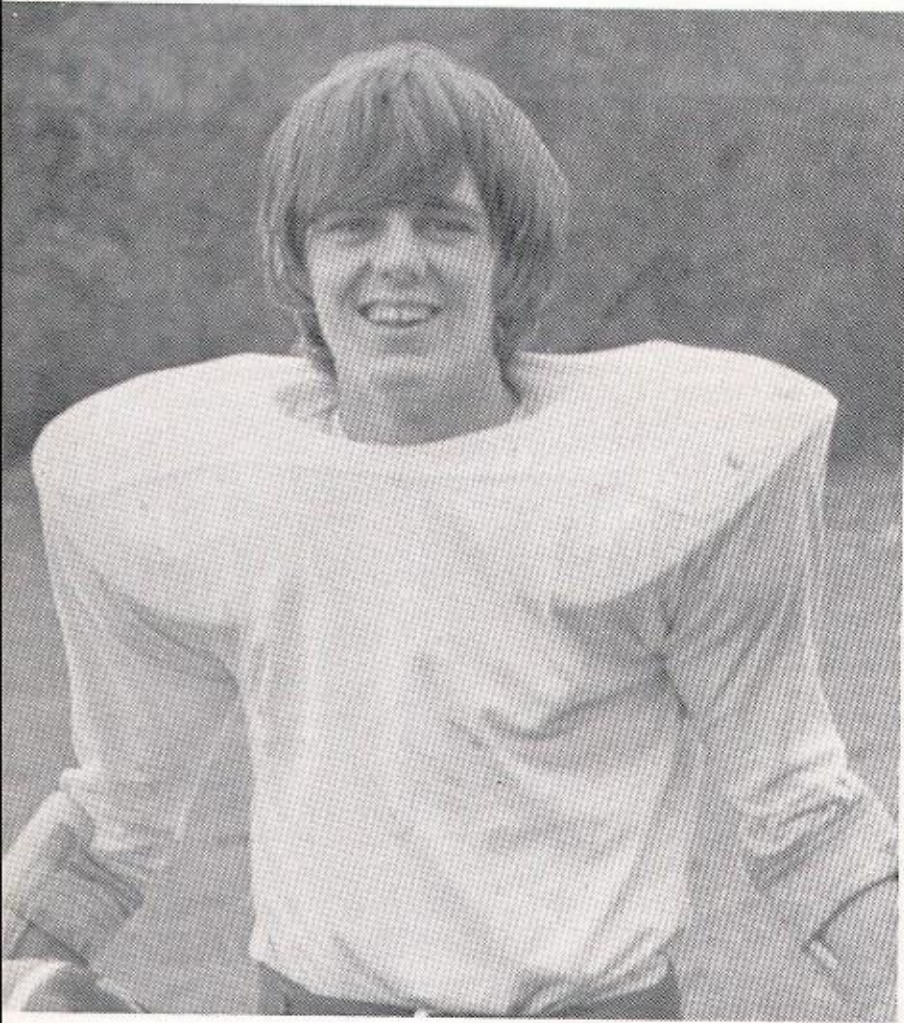

Walt Gloris — "What I must do concerns me, not what other people think."

Pam McIntyre — Happy are those who dream dreams and are willing to pay the price to make them come true.

Dave Schroder — Life is meant for living, not just existing.

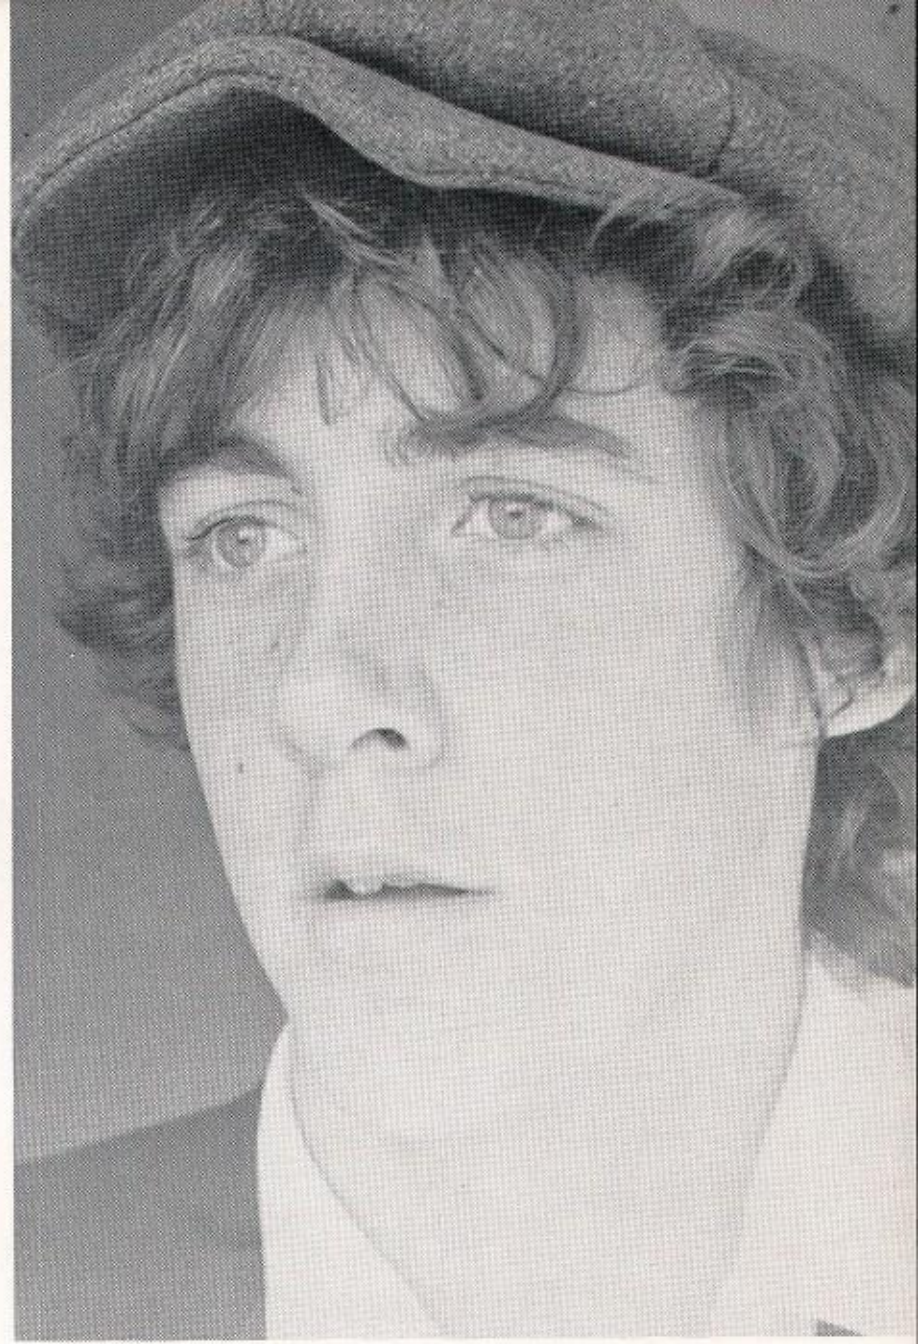

Liz Bamberger — The best is always about to be.

Lee Lounsbury — "I'm on my way to wherever I'm going."

Hal Baade — "Then he walked up to a stranger, and asked with a grin, could you kindly tell me friend, what time the show begins?"

Julia Yarter — "As long as I live, I shall always be myself and no other."

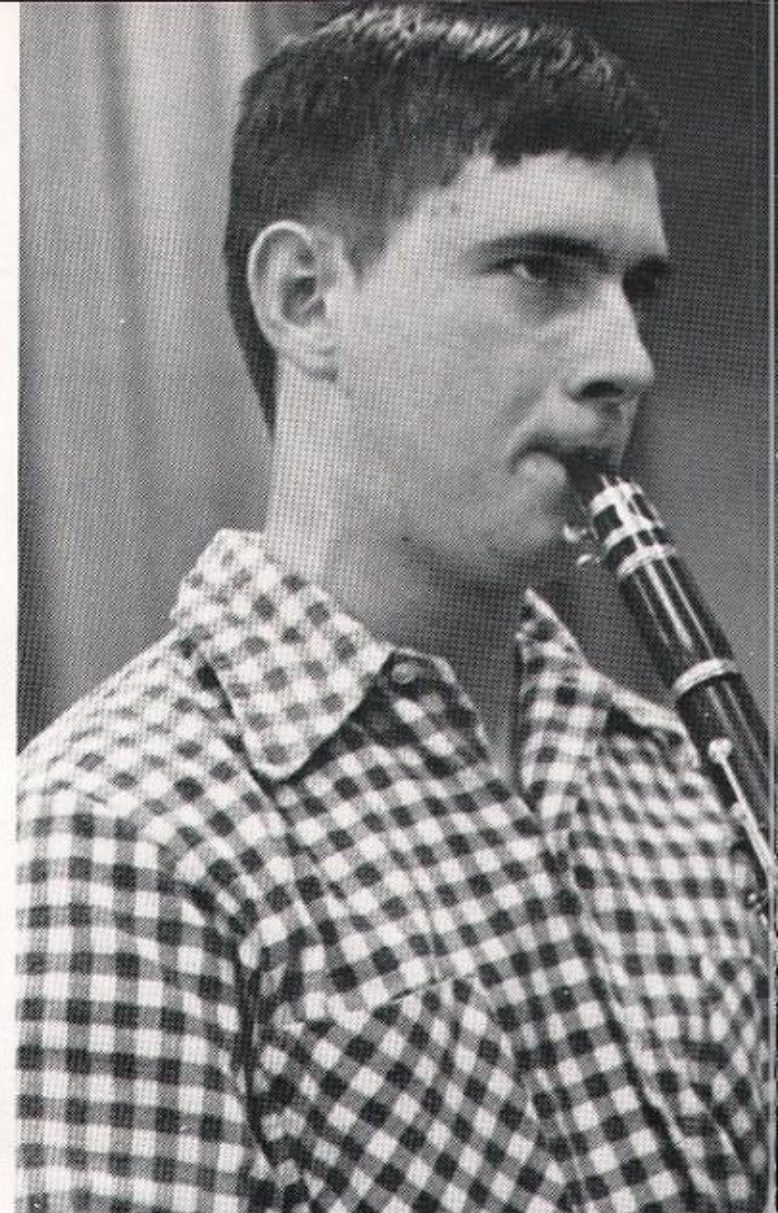

Sheryl Wood — "We're finally on our own, our time has come to shine."

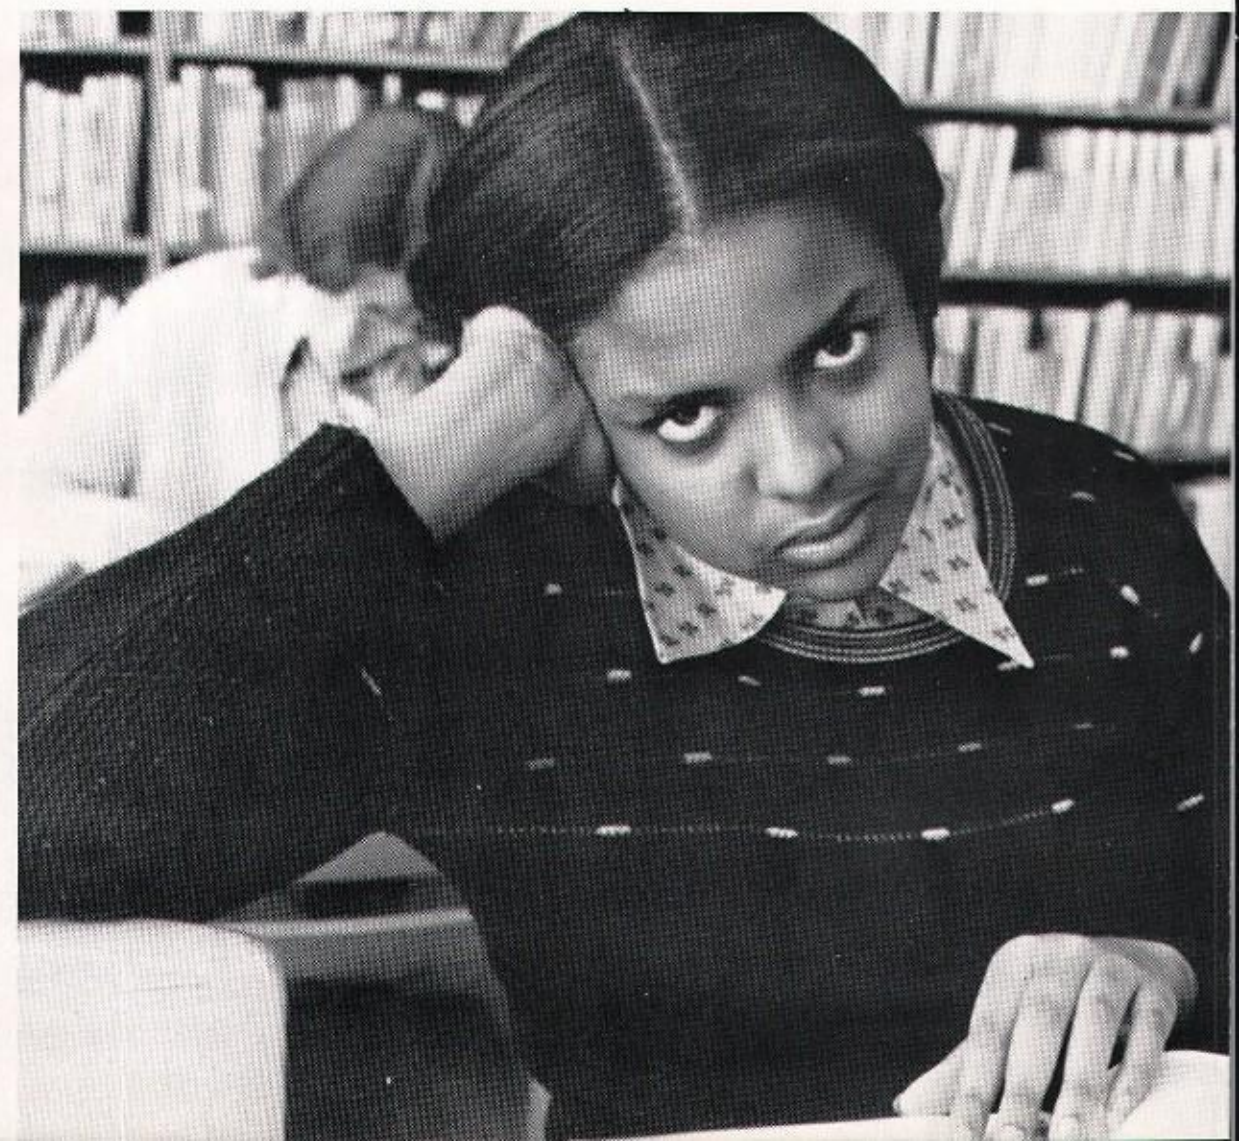

Sharon Gootz — Watch out now — take care, beware of thoughts that linger, winding up inside your head.

Steve Roth — Keep an open mind ready to absorb knowledge.

Anita McDaniel — Do unto others as you want them to do unto you.

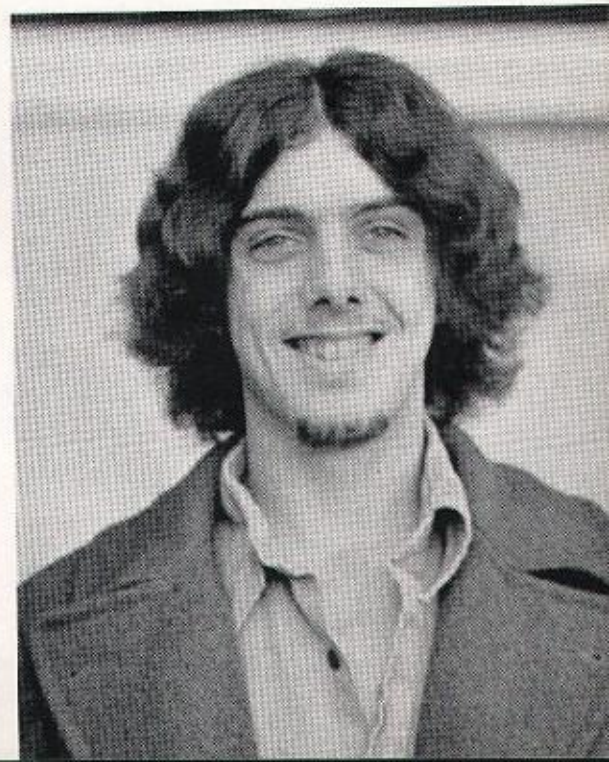

Dawne Hacker — In all that I may not accomplish, be confident that I tried.

Patty Shields — Seniors, in time, walk hand in hand, through life.

William Cramer — He who dresses and acts like he feels is truly himself.

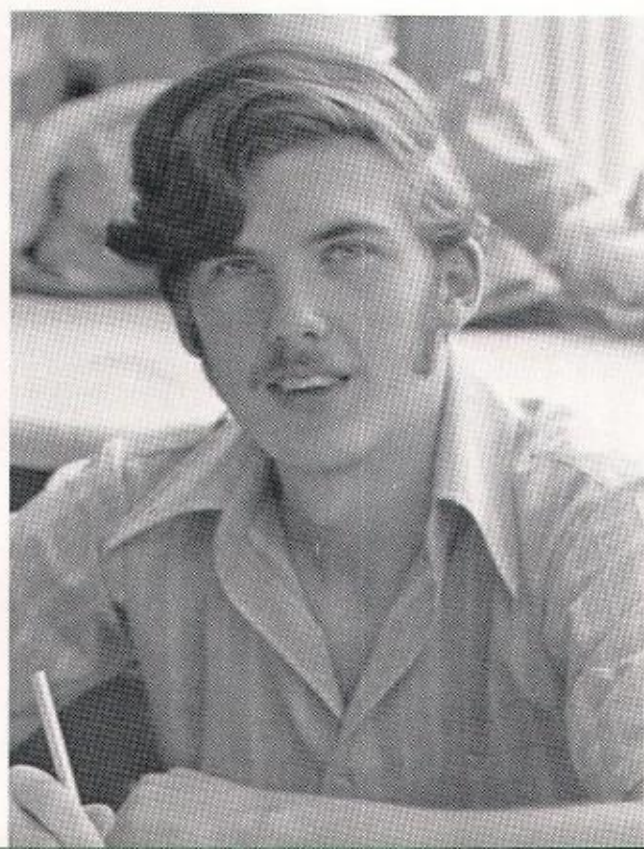

Becky Mantica — I will pass this way but once; may my every moment count.

Janis Goodlow — No excellent soul is exempt from a mixture of madness.

Debi Martino — I hope everyday for you is as clean, pure, and fresh as nature. I hope all your mornings GLOW!

Tom Newbury — Education is a good teacher as long as it doesn't interfere with your learning.

Frank MacKay — Nothing in life is free . . . Life is just being free.

Denise Bridenbeck — I'd rather live on the side of a mountain, than wander through canyons of concrete and steel.

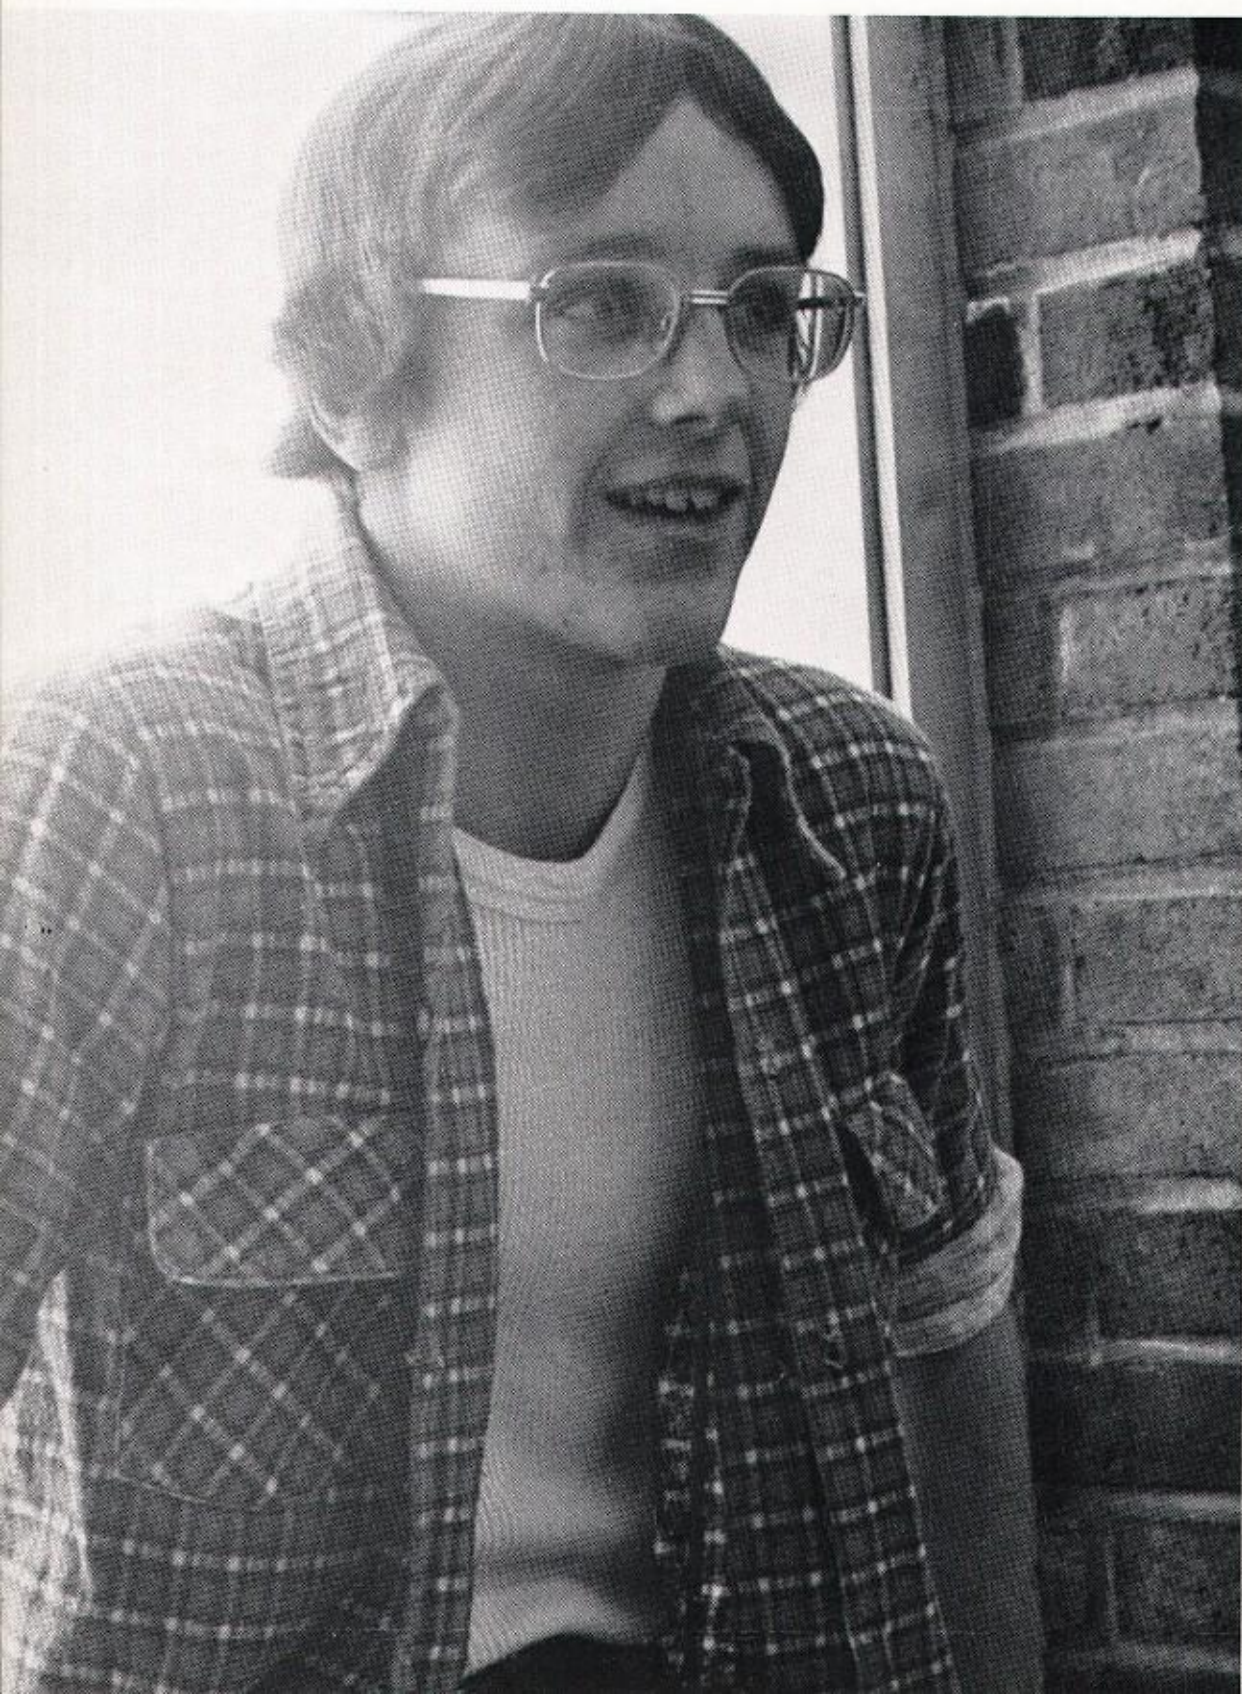

Tracy Keegan — You pay some agony for the ecstasy.

Kerry Lyte — A time of innocence, a time of confidences. Long ago it must be. I have a photograph.

Bonny Olsen — Jeffrey; If the sun refused to shine, I would still be loving you.

Warren Tuthill — It used to be that life was just emotions passing by.

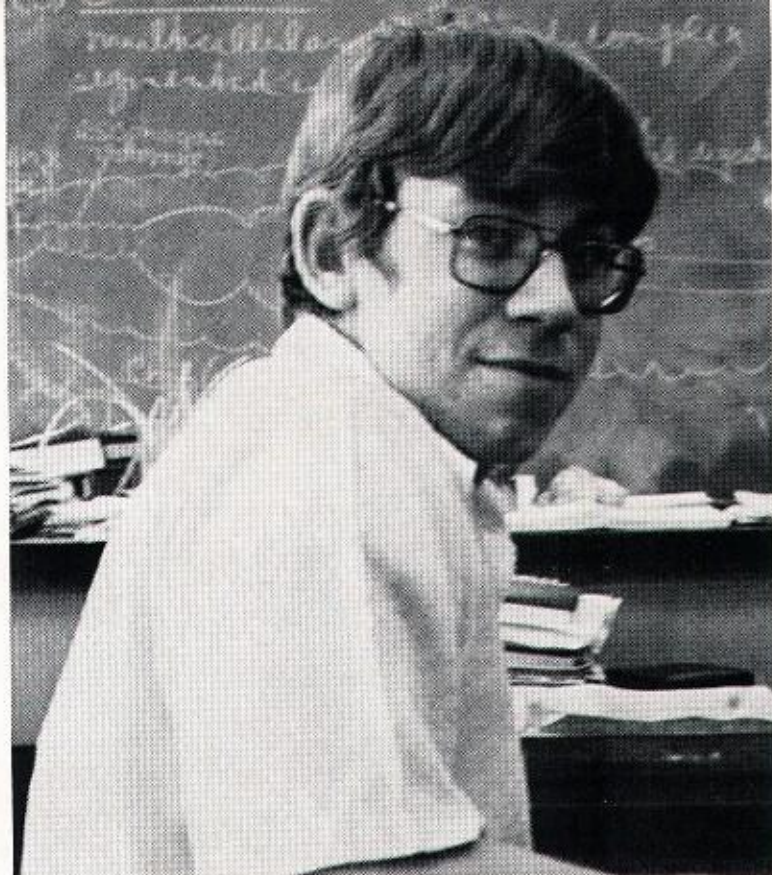

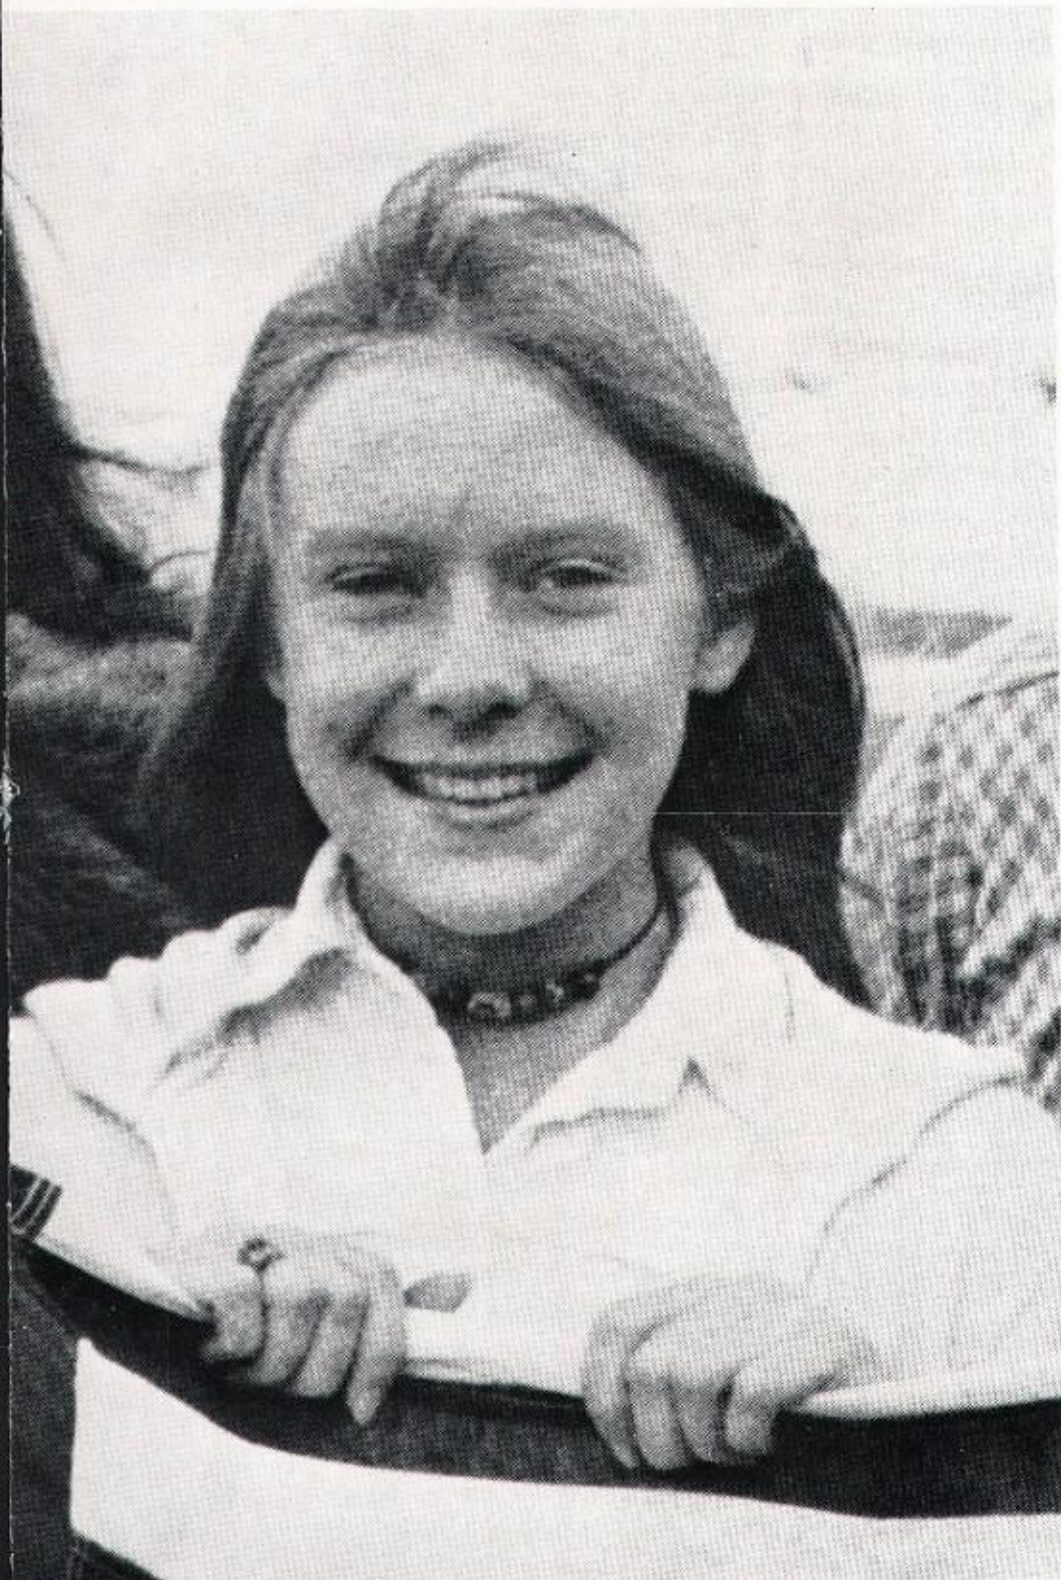

Theresa Roe — The effect of every action is measured by the depth of the sentiments from which it proceeds.

Dan Morgan — But I was so much older then, I'm younger than that now.

Julie Sewell — Love — like the autumn sun should be dying, but it's only just begun.

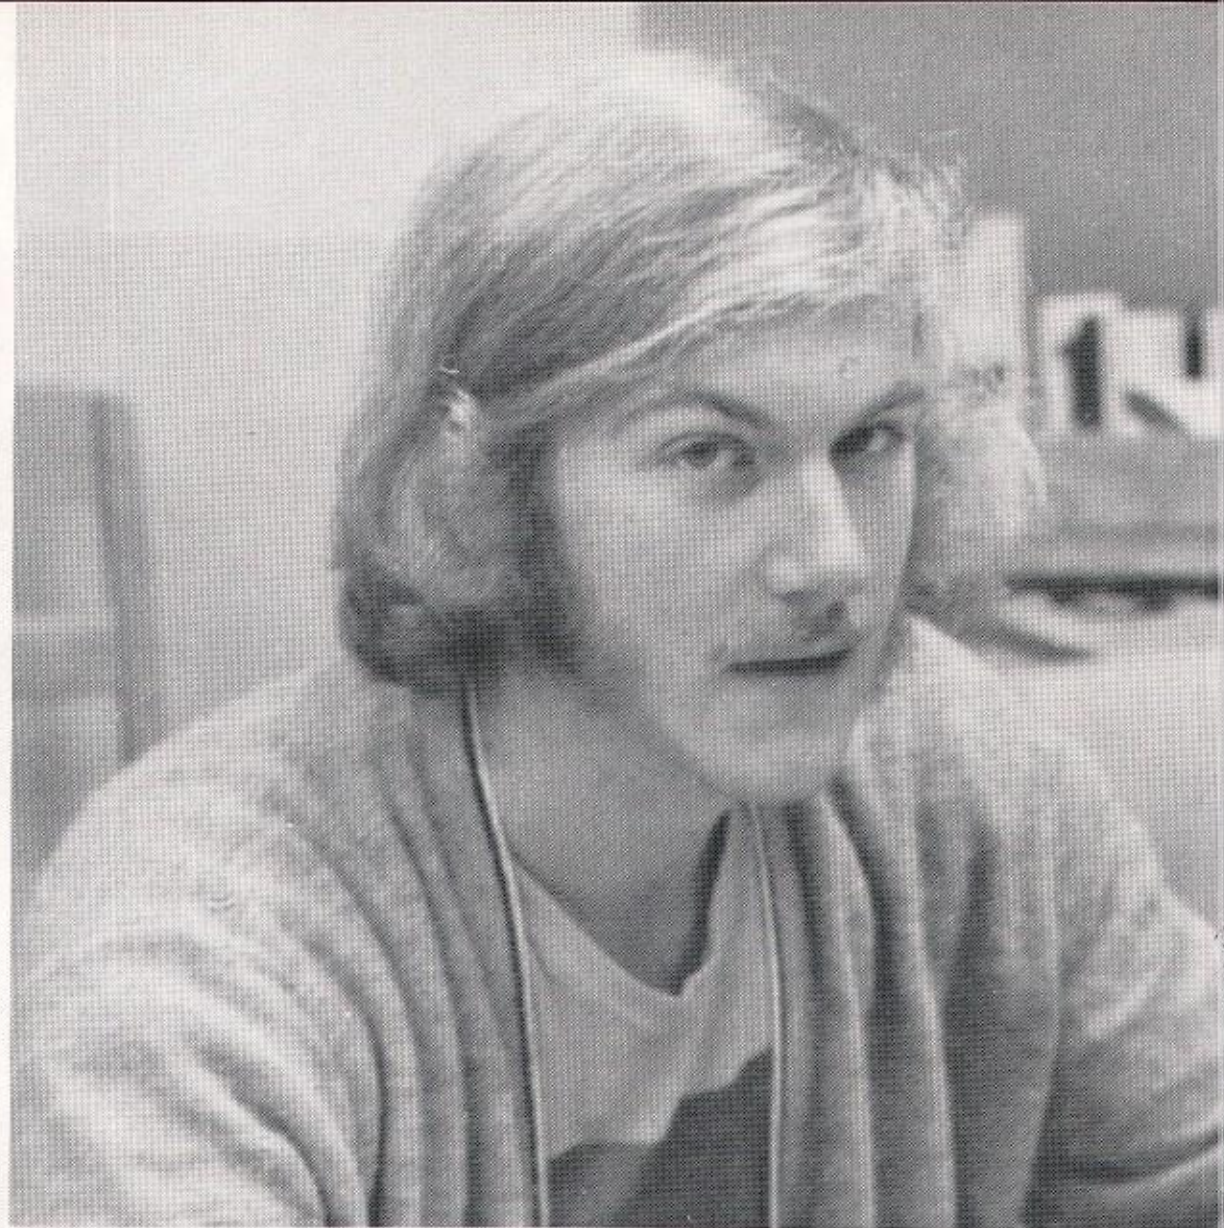

Donna Toukkala — I have many promises to keep and many miles to go before I sleep.

Joyce VanBlarcom — A hummingbird lives a year or two, enjoys beauty each day. We live so long compared, and wonder where time has gone. Life's too short.

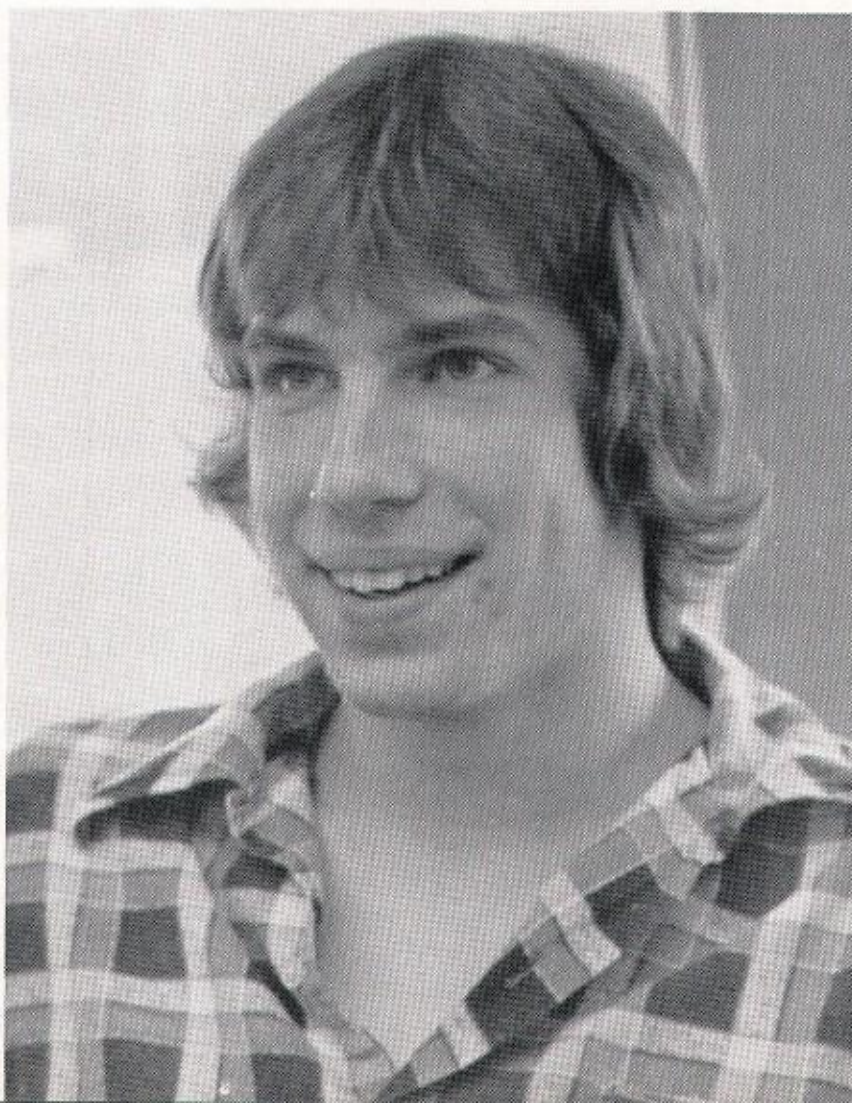

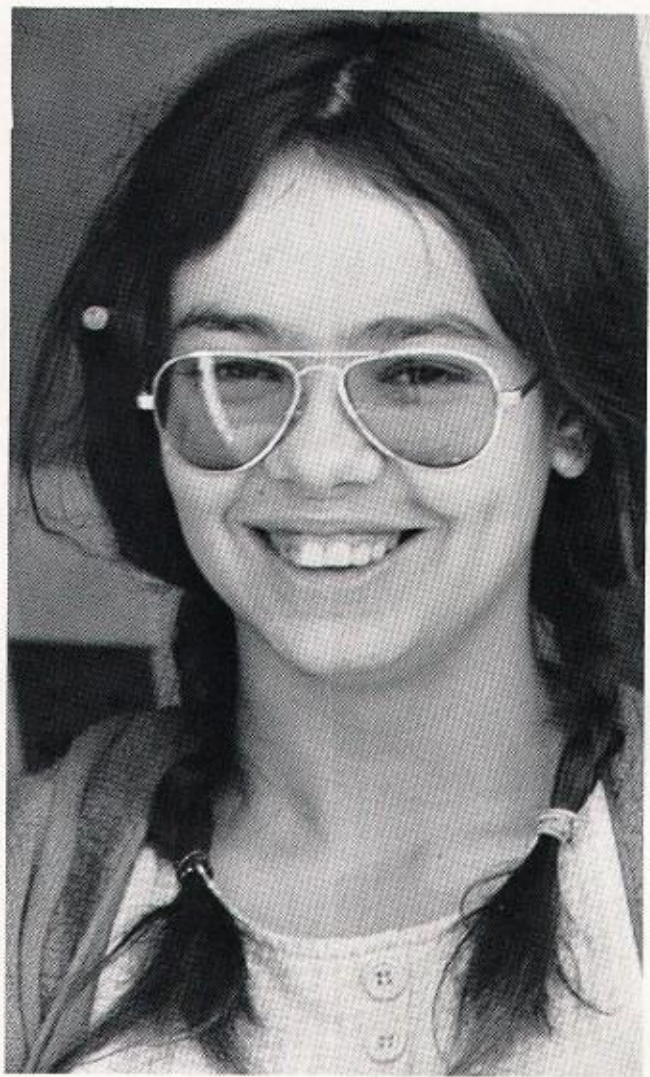

Dee McCumber — And I'm gonna go there free . . .

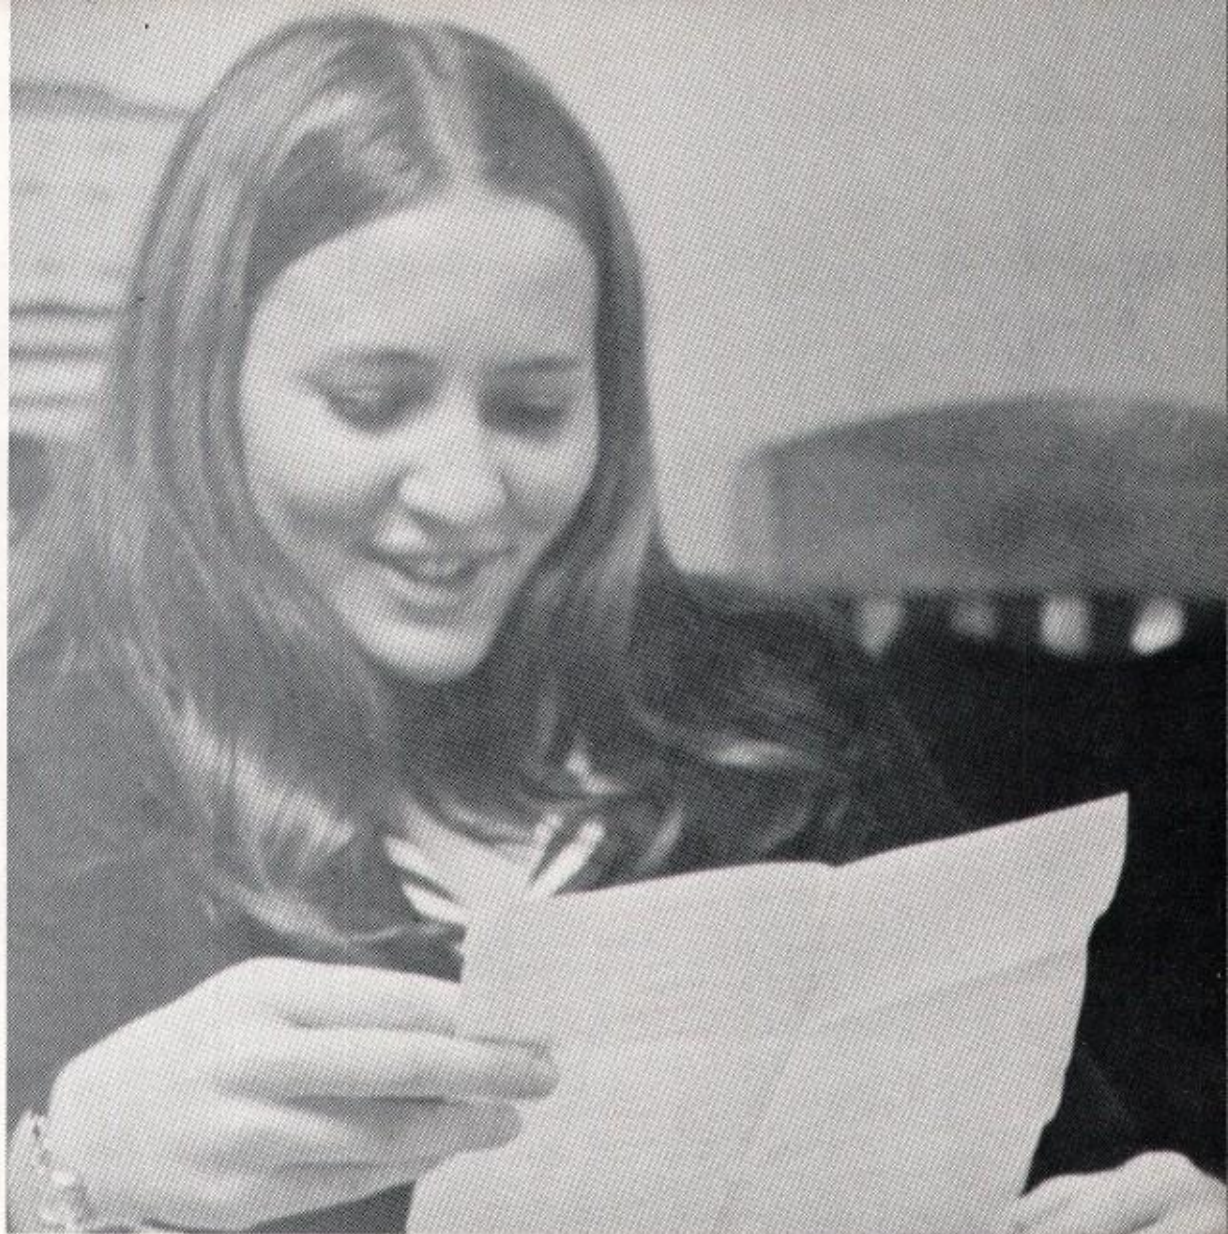

Steve Novak — Yes, there are two paths you can go by, but in the long run, there's still time to change the road you're on.

Tim Bohley — No one is light unto himself; not even the sun.

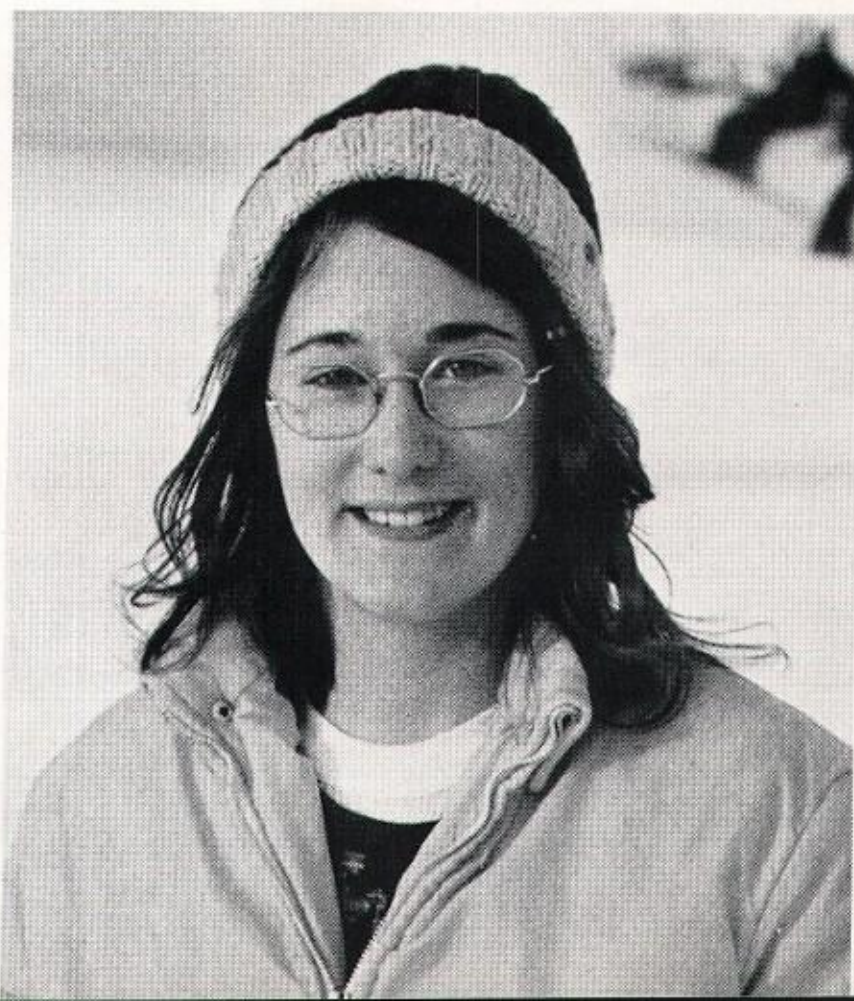

Maria Ruiz — Me Considero Rica Si Tengo Salud!
Felicidad! Y Paz!

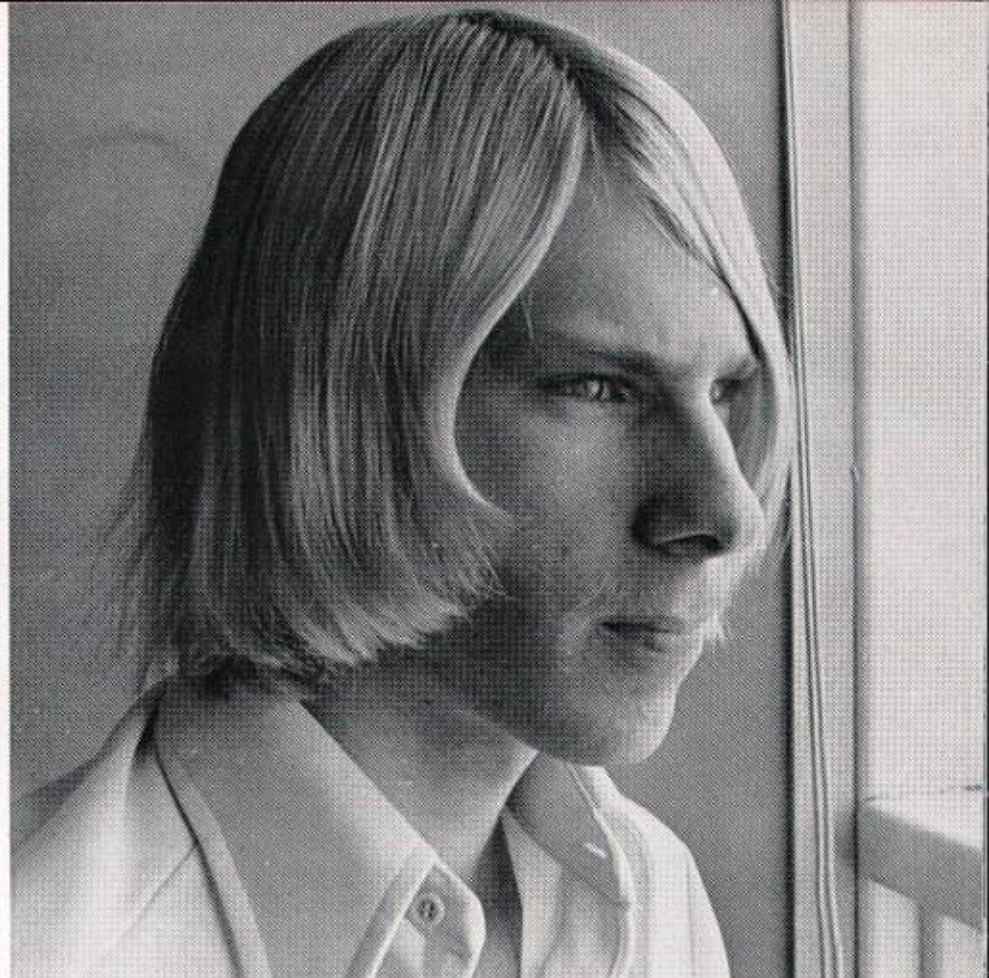

Dawn Lebrecht — Try to understand — to be understood!

Sue Vanderburgh — The reflections of a pond show beauty . . . Just as kindness reflects love.

Chris Wilkinson — A cock has great influence on his own dunghill.

Wanda Mesick — My pride in being an American is equaled only by my pride in being a woman!

Rich Rytel

Dave Adams — Butterflies are free to fly away.

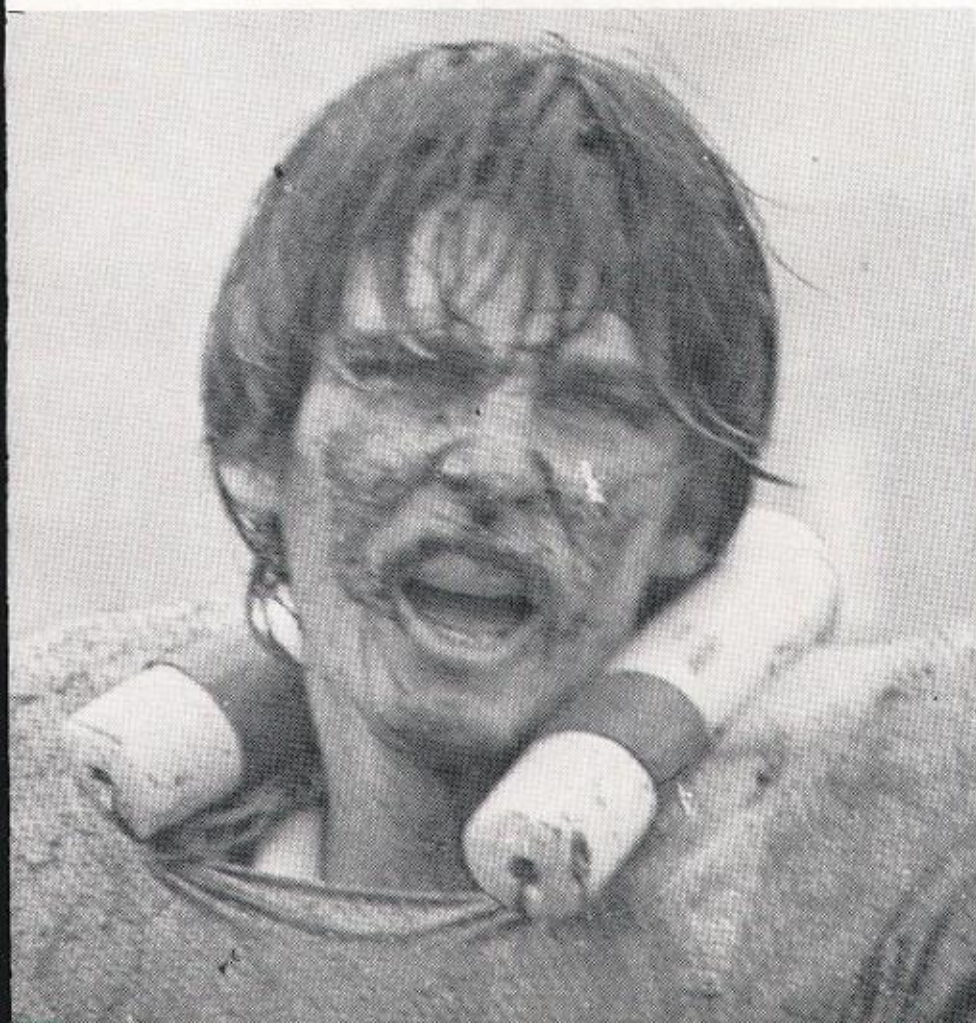

Lisa Dumas — Here's to the greater tomorrow — That is born of a great today.

Jeanmarie Zalinka — What once was will never be again;
Remembering the times that will never return.

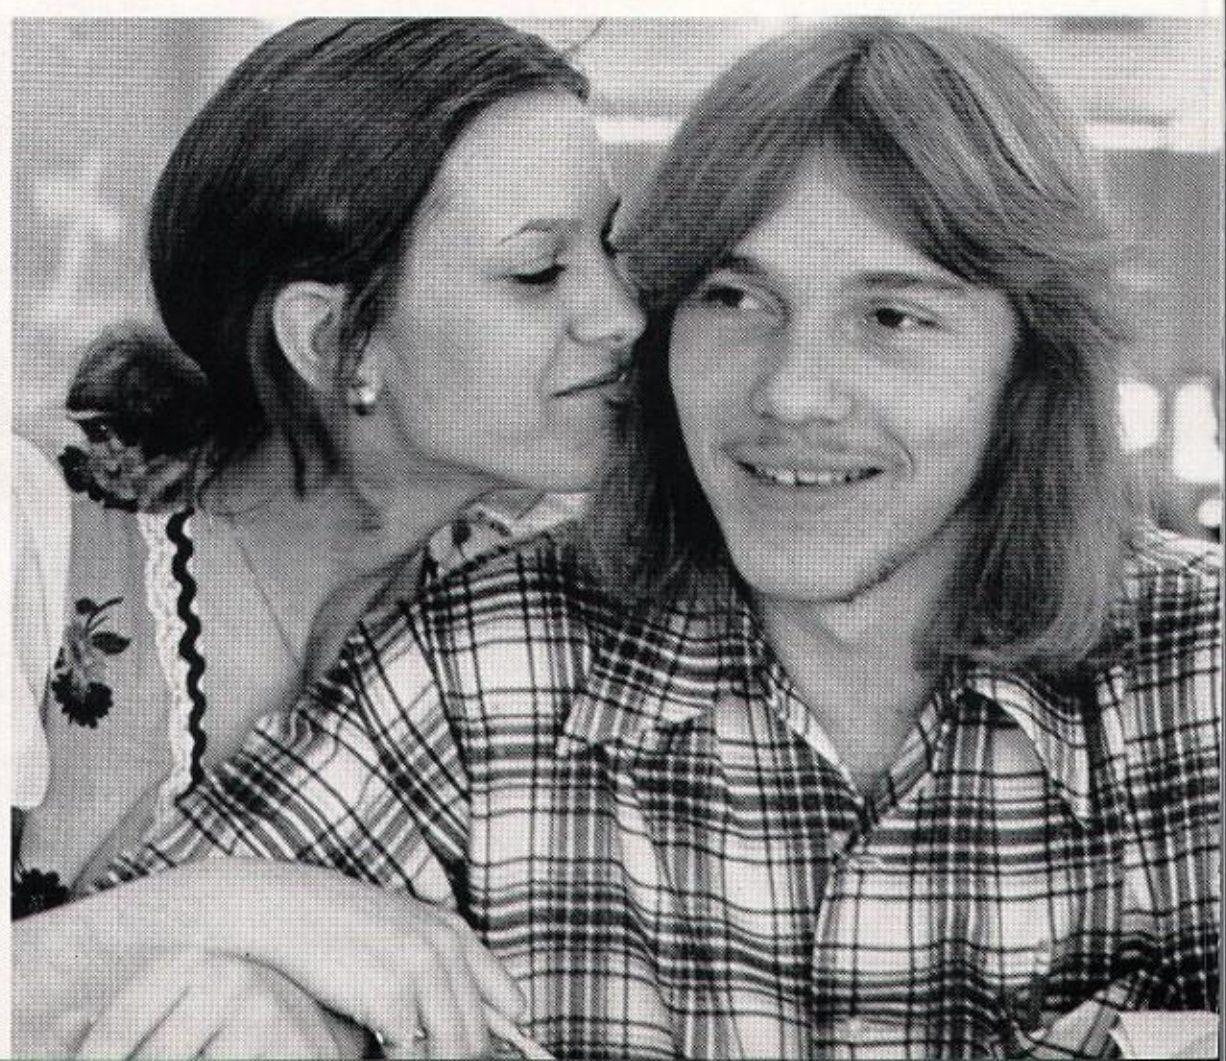

Rich Lilkas — Human kind cannot bear much reality.

Donna Bullinger — The minutes drag on almost at a standstill, but then life moves on again.

CHERYL STONE — Time is on my side, it will guide me in my travels.

"How precious is each day in life!" he cried . . .
and still they could not see . . . their wasted days of yesteryears . . .

Mrs. Vivian Ingalls
Business Department
Maple Hill High School
Castleton, New York 12033

Dear Mrs. Ingalls:

Enclosed find a note which we do not want to start with the: but with the more personal,. And the block vs. the semiblock style doesn't seem as important as to say in some way that we will miss you — that you have taught us all a great deal more beyond the:, the ,, the block and semiblock. About professionalism and respect and courtesy and getting the job done right. These, too, within the personal filing and business training of each of us. We are grateful for the association — have grown in it. Will be diminished by its loss.

A long and happy retirement sincerely wished by all. (enc. find best wishes.)

And now for the most difficult of all. The appropriate closing before the signature: yours truly? sincerely? respectfully? To violate all (yet in respect and with sincerity) we all remain —

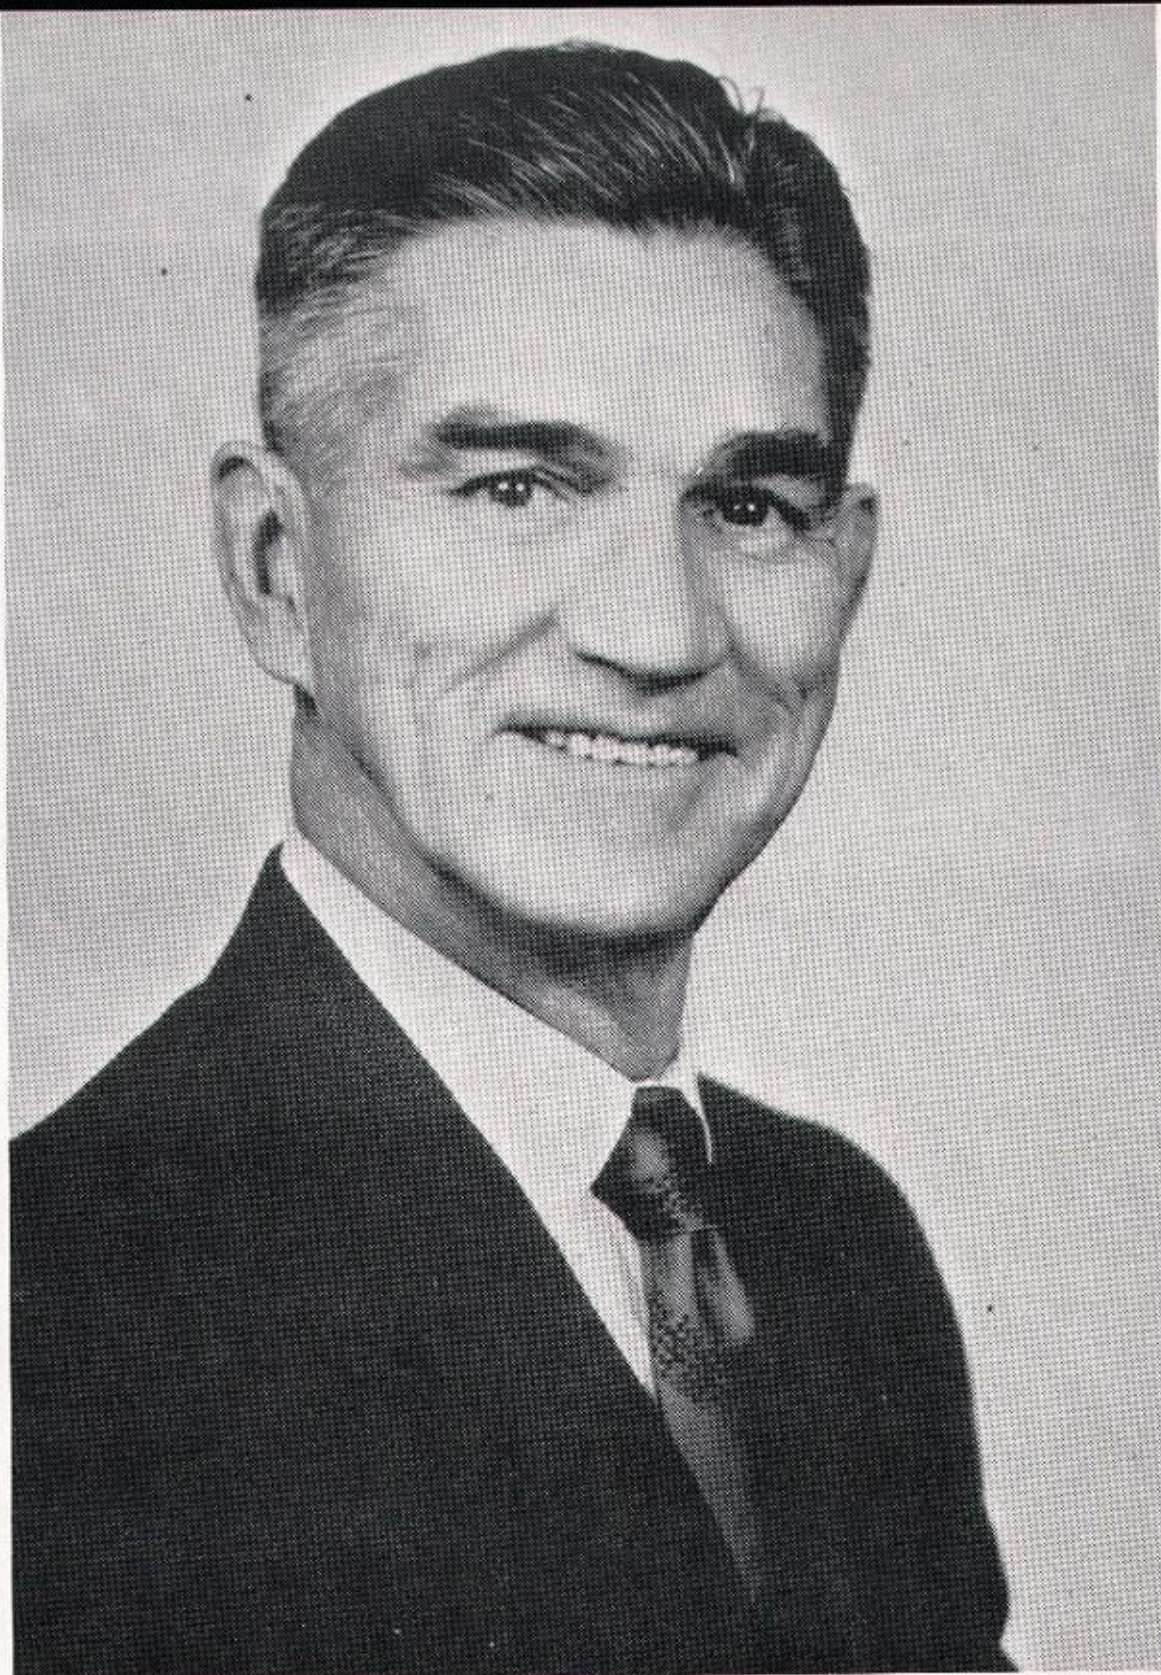

Fondly,

Students and Colleagues

When all my dreams were clean and new and all the world a song trouble was unknown to me for I was young and strong.

It mattered not how high the hill or just how rough the road or where the journey led me or just how big the load.

Those were the days I found and spent and never gave a mind those were the shining, golden days I've left so far behind.

These are the days of silver creeping slowly by worth half as much as the golden ones that really used to fly.

I live them, yes, but daily
I know that just ahead
the silver days will vanish replaced by those of lead.

With MHHS By Way Of This Bicentennial Flag.

To my dearest friends,
for all the love you have given me . . .

To my educators,
for the knowledge that you have instilled in me and the patience that you have taught me . . .

To those acquaintances whose names I do not know,
for the smiles and the cheerful
“Hi!” as our paths crossed . . .

To my teachers,
for stopping to talk with me for a moment—
I needed that word just then . . .

To my best friend,
for understanding and loving me
not in spite of my faults, but because of them, and for giving me the courage to take another step . . .

To those who helped me behind the scenes, for being my foundation—you have helped me to stand straight and tall . . .

SENIORS

To those special persons, for opening so many doors for me when I wasn't sure which path to take—a little confusion feels good sometimes . . .

To my advisers,
for helping me straighten things out when the confusion was becoming a little too much for me . . .

To my parents,
for giving me that special love and security only a mother and father can give. . .

To everyone,
for all the laughter—and the tears . . .

Thank You

Our spring shall come . . .
slowly, but with the certainty of sunrise . . .
to every winter-weary heart.
It brings with a touch . . . a smile . . .
a warm word of understanding . . .
. . . and the seeds of hope grow out of the darkness of our lives . . .
. . . and reach for the sun.

Farewell to you and the youth
 I have spent with you.
 It was but yesterday we met in a dream.
 You have sung to me in my aloneness,
 And I of your longings have built a tower in the sky.
 But now our sleep has fled,
 and our dream is over.
 And it is no longer dawn.
 The noontide is upon us and our half waking has turned to fuller day
 And we must part.
 If in the twilight of memory
 we should meet once more,
 We shall speak again together
 And you shall sing to me a deeper song.
 And if our hands should meet in another dream, We shall build another tower in the sky.

People are what life is all about.
 Without them we would not be able to exist. They help us to learn and discover what it means to be human.
 We are dedicating this book to each other, because we are people who have shared a part of our lives together. We've experienced feelings, given reactions, and in general, just tried to get along.
 If we have grown by doing this,
 then it was all worthwhile.

Identity

To soar high in your thoughts grasping reality your still always searching or soar through the thick, fluffy clouds blanketing you from the criticisms of life.
You must reach out in your judgements trying for heights higher than you imagine which seem sometimes futile and useless and much easier to pass by,

THOMAS NEWBURY

but reappear again in the mist your mind is gliding through trying to decide upon the right goals and not sweep downward your whole life.
Just attempting is a great goal, to be trying your hardest is something everyone can admire.

The clock ticks away with incredible certainty, while the eyes of the youth plot out their destiny.
Becoming someone is all they want to do although it's not easy
when you're not free to be you.
They wait with impatience matched with anxiety, realizing, not, the freedom they own,

but the few limits they possess.
The desolate walls contain much glamour, although not of the aged the young hustle to become.
The final steps lead upward,
though in a sense, down,
to the outstretched plateau
we all wish to bypass.
